EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

A new study claims that the druids who built Stonehenge knew Pythagoras' Theorem, 2000 years before the Greek philosopher was born. Pythagoras is widely acknowledged as the man who formally stated that, in a right-angled triangle, the square on the hypotenuse (the longest side, opposite the right-angle) would have the same area as the sum of the squares of the other two sides. For example, in a right-angled triangle with side lengths of 3, 4 and 5 metres, the area of hypotenuse-square (25 square metres) would equal the area of the other two squares combined (9 sq m plus 16 sq m, respectively). Many things follow from this result. For example, the theorem leads to the concept of irrational numbers. A right angled triangle with two sides of length1 m each, can be constructed physically. But the third side has a length equal to the square root of 2 metres and it cannot be easily represented. The story goes, the Greeks, who loved whole numbers, drowned some poor idiot who pointed out this inconvenient fact.

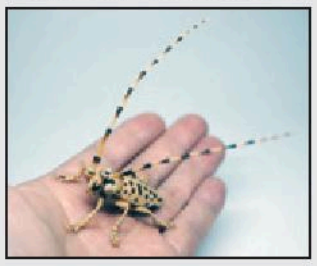
Artist creates life-size insects out of bamboo



Tokyo: Japanese artist Noriyuki Saitoh is a master in creating the anatomical features of tiny insects using only bamboo. The level of realism displayed in his creations is simply uncanny.

From the wiry whiskers of grasshoppers to the veiny wings wings of dragonflies and cicadas, the attention to detail in Noriyuki Saitoh's bamboo insects is breathtaking. It's true that the natural versatility of bamboo really helps, allowing the artist and his team to bend, score and layer the material to capture every little detail almost to perfection. Or at least that what you're tempted to believe when you look at his tiny insects, even though things are not quite as they seem.

"Since we are not preparing specimens and replicas, we strictly measure the dimensions and prioritize the appearance impressions, features, and senses rather than proportions being created exactly," Noriyuki writes on his website.

Life-size vases out of folded playing cards

Qianjiang: 65-year-old Zhang Kehua, a retired mason from Qianjiang in China, has assembled realistic Chinese vases out of thousands of folded plastic playing cards.

Zhang Kehua, spent most of his life restoring ancient buildings in Jianli district which got him the opportunity to admire lost of ancient relics, his favorite of which were vases. The idea for the unusual art form came to him a few years ago, after seeing a child in the streets playing with a plastic playing card by folding it into small triangles.

In time, he created two distinct styles, one geometric, featuring shapes like squares, diamonds and triangles, and the other artistic, with traditional Chinese elements like dragons and phoenixes. He has created playing card vases of up to 106 centimeters tall, which contain around 5,000 playing cards and take over a week to complete.

VOICE OF THE READER

The plight of village boy strikes a chord

Sir,

The news that we encounter every day is so filled with instances of horror and tragedy that we tend to get inure over a period of time; shrug the momentary emotions it evokes and move on.

However, the recent headline in SOM "Village boy writhes in pain since 3 months with no help from Netas" struck a chord in me, prompting me to write this letter. Thank you SOM for highlighting the issue.

Parents go through so much agony when their child is sick and suffering. What the boy Madesha is going through is a constant excruciating condition. Just imagine his parents' plight, having to cope with their son's condition, trying very hard to meet the medical expenses and still not be able to alleviate his suffering.

I appeal to SOM to champion his cause; raise funds and increase publicity for this child.

RTO offices need to gear up

Sir,

This is in reference to the letter by Vijayakumar (SOM dated June 20) and the inordinate delay by RTO, Mysuru, in issuing vehicle documents. I have submitted vehicle ownership transfer papers of a car to RTO, Mysuru (West) on 26th March 2018. The transfer is sought from my father's name to my mother's name. I was also instructed to furnish a self-addressed and stamped envelope for the same.

It is already three months and I am yet to receive the respective vehicle documents after the transfer. I have approached the

Chanting Classes from July 5

Mysuru, July 1- Mantras are impulses or rhythms of the consciousness. Often we wonder why we chant some sounds without understanding their meanings? The meaning of every mantra is infinity. It is a sound vibration beyond the cognition of the mind. When the mind is unable to cognise, it simply dissolves and moves into a meditative space

Chanting Vedic Mantras bring out all the positive energy inside us. When we chant the mantras, or listen to them, we get purity of mind and word. This prepares us for meditation.

Sri Ravishankar Guruji's Art of Living, Mysore Chapter, has organised Chanting Classes from July 5 (weekly three days) at Art of Living Ashram, Lalithadripura Road, Mysuru.

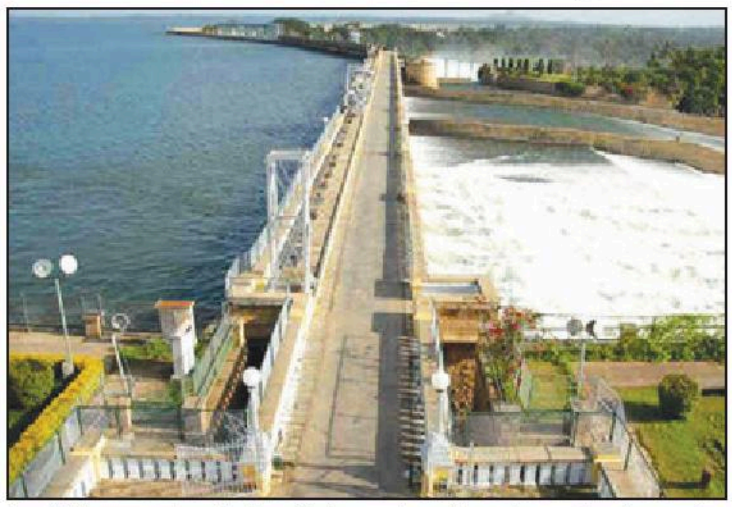
State to challenge Cauvery Water Authority in SC

Bengaluru, July 1- An all-party meet called by Karnataka Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy yesterday decided to authorise the State's legal team to file an appeal in the Supreme Court against the Centre's recent notification of the Cauvery Management Authority. Additionally, members of Parliament from the State have agreed to take up the issue in the House.

The developments come a week after Karnataka reluctantly nominated two bureaucrats to the Management Authority, after the Centre issued a notification. The notification is part of the Cauvery water sharing scheme that the Supreme Court had asked the Centre to announce in its verdict on the matter earlier this year.

Addressing the press after the meeting, Irrigation Minister D.K. Shivakumar said that two Committees had been set up by the Centre, the Management Authority and Regulation Committee. This was despite the State asking the Centre to not be in a hurry to form the Authority.



"We have appointed two officers to the Authority and they will go to the meeting on July 2 to present our views and raise the issues of farmers of Karnataka," Shivakumar said.

The Irrigation Minister said that MPs from the State had agreed to raise the issue in Parliament. "Although it is mandatory for the Central Government to place the scheme for discussion in Parliament, we have decided not to wait till then," the Congress leader said.

"We have also decided to appeal the matter in the Supreme Court and our legal team comprising Mohan Katarki, Fali Nariman and our advocate general will guide us through it," Shivakumar added.

At present, with copious rains, water levels in the four dams on the Cauvery in Karnataka are much higher than the corresponding levels last year. While the Kabini dam has almost reached full capacity, the Krishna Raja Sagar, Harangi and Hemavathi have reached levels much higher than the previous years.

The all-party meeting was attended by many MPs and MLAs, including State Bharatiya Janata Party Chief B.S. Yeddyurappa. But former Chief Minister and Chairman of the Congress-JD(S) Government's Coordination Committee Siddharamaiah gave the meet a miss, even though his son and first-time MLA Dr. Yathindra was present, leading to a fresh round of speculation that all was not well in the coalition Government.

Shivakumar said that the former CM, who is also the leader of the Congress Legislature Party, had communicated his inability to attend the meet to the leaders on Friday. "He had told us he had prior commitments and, hence, could not make it," he said.

Music Varsity teaching, non-teaching staff protest

Mysuru, July 1- The teaching and non-teaching staff of Karnataka State Dr. Gangubai Hangal Music and Performing Arts University, who have been working on a temporary basis since the last eight years, staged a protest in front of the University on JLB Road on Friday demanding extension of services.

They said that without any notice to them, the appointment process for teaching and non-teaching staff for the year 2018-19 had begun. This was an injustice to them, they said, shouting slogans against the administration.

Currently there are 23 teaching and seven non-teaching staff who are working. Their services have been extended by six months and the new appointment process has been taken up.

When Dr. Sarvamangala Shankar was the Vice-Chancellor, she would place it before the Syndicate and the services were being extended. However, the in-charge VC Prof. R. Rajesh has taken a hasty decision. Since the last eight years we have given up private performance and are working in the University and now injustice is being done to us, they charged.

In the new selection process if we are denied opportunity, then our lives will be in jeopardy. This process should be dropped and our services must be continued, the protesters demanded.

Prof. Rajesh, reacting after receiving the memorandum, said that according to the rules Guest Lecturers must be appointed anew every year. In this background, notification has been issued and applications invited from eligible candidates. Likewise, those in service have also applied. Everyone will be called for the interview and selected according to the rules, he assured.

Asst. Professor (tabla) Dr. Dundaiah, Lecturers Narayan, Ganesh, Vaishnavi Hangal (granddaughter of Dr. Gangubai Hangal), Dr. Shivaleela Siddaveer, Nayana, Surabhi, Shruthi, Dr. Chetana Radhakrishna, Pushpa, Dr. Bhuveneshwari, Dr. Santoshi and Ramesh Dhanur took part in the protest.

Horticulture students oppose promotion

Mysuru, July 1- Nearly 200 students of the College of Horticulture in Yelachenahalli on Hunsur Road, staged a protest at the DC's Office against promoting Horticulture Assistants (HA) as Assistant Horticulture Officers (AHO).

The students took out a procession from Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple, Palace North Gate, yesterday and reached the DC's Office.

They said that HA, who have just passed SSLC, are being promoted, while those with degree in Horticulture are being ignored. They demanded that this anomaly must be set right immediately.

Student leaders K.N. Kiran, Keerthi Shankar, Sanjay, Ambarish, R. Manoj and others participated in the protest.

Contractors object to MCC inviting tenders

Mysuru, July 1- The MCC Contractors Association has objected the MCC's action of inviting tenders for 127 civil works under the names of the Mayor and Deputy Mayor and also under SFC.

In a press release, Association President Chandrashekaraiah said that the MCC is yet to clear the dues of contractors, even three years after completion of works. In such a situation, the MCC's move to invite tenders out of its funds is not correct.

As the S.R. rates are yet to be upwardly revised following the implementation of GST at twelve percent, the MCC should defer the tender process until the S.R. Rates are finalised, the release said.

Court stays multi-level parking lot works at Town Hall

Mysuru, July 1(SPN&DM)- An Arbitration Court in Bengaluru has stayed the works on the multi-level parking lot being constructed in Town Hall premises in city, according to Corporator B.V. Manjunath, Chairman, MCC Standing Committee on Town Hall.

Speaking to SOM yesterday, Manjunath said that Hyderabad based Chhabria Associates, claiming that it has suffered losses had moved the Arbitration Court in Bengaluru, seeking compensation for the losses. The Court which upheld the plea has issued a stay on the works, he said.

Pointing out that the public and citizen groups have been exerting pressure on completing the multi-level parking lot, open air theatre and other projects, Manjunath blamed the contractor for the slow progress of works and added that he would take up the issue with the officials concerned.

Stating that the cost of multi-level parking lot and development of outer space was estimated at Rs.17.66 crore, he said that the tender was finally awarded for Rs. 18.28 crore and the contractor was asked to complete the works in 12 months and the project was to be completed by April 2012. But only 60 percent of the works was done, he said.

He further said that the same contractor was awarded a contract for Rs.2.82 crore for taking up indoor development of the Town Hall and the contractor was supposes to complete the works by 2011. But as there was delay, the time was extended and was asked to complete by Mar. 2014, Manjunath said.

A.H. Vishwanath hits out at Kaginele Mutt Seer

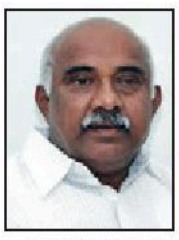
Mysuru, July 1- Taking strong exception to the statements of Kanaka Guru Peetha Seer Niranjanandapuri Swamiji warning the Congress against neglecting former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, JD(S) MLA A.H. Vishwanath has decried religious heads taking cudgels on behalf of parties and politicians.

Speaking to media persons here yesterday, Vishwanath, who also belongs to Kuruba community, said that religious heads should be more concerned about the state of the society and community in general.

Asking the seers not to get involved in politics, he said that seers indulging in politics does not augur well for democracy.

Vishwanath said that Kaginele Mutt Seer should realise that Siddharamaiah was not the only leader of the Kuruba Community.

Recalling that he was instrumental in bringing Siddharamaiah to the Congress fold, Vishwanath expressed disappointment over Niranjanandapuri Swamiji and Kuruba Sangha speaking only in favour of Siddharamaiah.



A.H. Vishwanth Niranjanandapuri Swamiji

"Where were the Seer and Kuruba organisations when injustice was done to me". he asked.

The JD(S) MLA also wanted to know why the Seer and Kuruba Sangha was silent when Siddharamaiah did not induct even one member from the community into the Cabinet for four years.

Referring to the political statements of Mate Mahadevi, Nanjavadhoote Swamiji and Niranjananadapuri Swamiji, he said it was unfair on their part to defend or lobby on behalf of politicians and added that the seers should speak against social evils and raise farmer issues.

Vishwanath, who said that the coalition Government would complete five years in office, accused former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah of interfering in the coalition Government.

He alleged that he was denied a Ministerial berth due to the intervention of the former CM.

Satyagraha at Vidurashvattha

Satyagraha is generally associated with Indian freedom struggle. It was popularised by Mahatma Gandhi. The word consists of two Sanskrit words 'Satya' and 'Agraha' literally meaning truth and anger. In the present context, it could be taken to mean resentment. Gandhiji here had a rider that resentment should not be taken in its literal meaning but it should mean to convert one to the path of freedom movement.

Nowadays Satyagraha is used as a weapon against persons in authority, may be a government or a corporate body. It is called strike or lockout and both do not come closer to Satyagraha. We see strikes being called for various reasons. These are all strikes and not Satyagraha. The concept of Satyagraha is pure and sacred and it is resorted to not by one or group of individuals but by the entire community for the sake of common good of the entire State or country or even the world. Thus Satyagraha stands on a high pedestal.

With this background, Satyagraha resorted to at Vidurashvattha may be examined. Vidurashvattha is a small village in Gowribidanur taluk of Kolar. It has a Puranic background as its name is concerned. The place came to be called Vidurashvattha because of the famous wise man Vidura of Mahabharata.

He gave sound advice to Kauravas but they simply rejected it. Still Viduraneeti (advice of Vidura) has become proverbial. Such a wise man Vidura is said to have planted an Ashwatha tree in a place about 6 kms from this place and hence the present name. It is a holy place on the North Pinakini River and hundred Naga stones have been established. There are many smaller temples here and every year in the Chaitra month, full moon day, a Jathra is held.

It is no wonder that such a famous place took part in the freedom struggle. We have read about a Satyagraha in Mysore where a student by name Ramaswamy of Banavara in Arasikere taluk hoisted the national flag and was shot at by Nagaraja Rao, the then District Collector. Ramaswamy Circle is named after the student.

Vidurashvattha Satyagraha is no less significant and is important as the Mysore city Satyagraha. Basically they are the same with some minor differences. Mysore Satyagraha is better known because of its location and popularity.

We have to go back to 1938 to understand the significance of Satyagraha we are dealing with. Freedom fighters wanted to get independence from British rule. To save their empire, the British administration, especially the Police, looked at ordinary citizens with suspicion and were keeping a vigil on them. There were hundreds of people whose main ambition was to join Satyagraha to gain independence. If the British came to know of these activities, they would either kill them or throw them into prisons on false charges. Practically there was no appeal against their atrocities.

Citizens of the then Mysore State were mainly concerned with getting independence for the State of Mysore though successive Maharajas were highly benevolent and looked after their subjects with great care and love. Krishnaraja Wadiyar IV and Jayachamaraja Wadiyar had earned the goodwill of the people. Even Mahatma Gandhi had paid encomiums to Krishnaraja (Nalwadi) Wadiyar and called him Rajarishi, a seer among kings. But freedom fighters did not make a compromise on their demand of driving the British out. They wanted independence and nothing else.

In 1938 on April 22, a Jaatre was held at Vidurashvattha. A large number of local people had gathered there and most of them were doing their business and were not involved in Satyagraha. The Police blindly and without any provocation, fired and some people died. The next day too, the same thing happened. On 25th April about 7,000 people saluted the Congress flag and then also Police fired against the crowd and ten people died.

After the attainment of freedom, in memory of this great event, a Sarvodaya Memorial High School was established in 1959. In 1962, a memorial pillar was established at this place.

A grateful nation remembers these men who sacrificed themselves for independence. The next time you pass through Kolar make it a point to visit Vidurashvattha and pay homage to these martyrs.

KSOU, UoM scams:
Open debate on July 3

Madhusudhan

Prof. Rangappa

Mysuru, July 1- An open debate will be held between former MLC and senior BJP leader G. Madhusudhan and former Vice-Chancellor Prof. K.S. Rangappa regarding the alleged irregularities committed by Rangappa when he was the VC of Karnataka State Open University (KSOU) and University of Mysore (UoM).

The debate will be held on Tuesday, July 3, at Pathrakarthara Bhavan and Mysuru District Journalists Association (MDJA) will facilitate the debate.

At a press conference recently, Madhusudhan had charged Rangappa of destroying the future of nearly 10 lakh students of KSOU and that he was involved in a number of scams both in KSOU and UoM.

He had challenged Rangappa for an open debate regarding the corruption charges.

Rest House facilities for drivers on National Highways
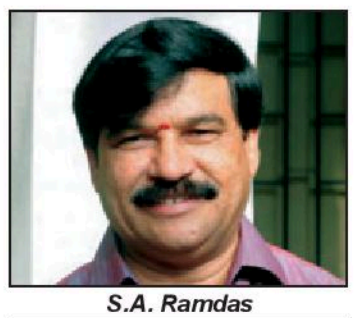
Ramdas announces Modi's Scheme



S.A. Ramdas

Mysuru, July 1 (PM&NNN)- Prime Minister Narendra Modi has come forward with the idea of setting up Rest Houses every 25-km on National Highways in the country, said KR Constituencey MLA S.A. Ramdas.

He was speaking after inaugurating the 7th anniversary of the District Tourist Vehicle Drivers and Owners Welfare Association at Veene Seshanna Bhavan, here recently.

The national permit vehicle drivers drive all over the country. To facilitate them, the Central Government has come forward to set up Rest Houses in every 25-km distance. This will help the drivers rest, take bath and even cook, he said.

The tourist vehicle drivers meet new guests every day. The visitors imagine the tourist places based on the inputs given by these experienced drivers. Hence, the tourist vehicle drivers have a big responsibility to promote tourism.

During the British rule, the transport policy was changed and a new policy was adopted. The Central Government came up with a new policy after independence. This was passed in the Lok Sabha but it was stalled in the Rajya Sabha, he said expressing his displeasure.

Karnataka, Kerala oppose 'Ayushman Bharat': The Central Government which has come forward to implement 'Ayushman Bharat' life insurance scheme for the hard working drivers in the unorganised sector has been accepted by all the States in the country except Karnataka and Kerala.

Under this Central scheme, Rs. 10 crore health cover will be provided for the families, and a letter has been written to both the State Chief Ministers to sign for the scheme, he said and added that the drivers should educate the children and see that they land good jobs.

Support for children's education

Chamaraja MLA L. Nagendra assured that he was ready to support the education of the children of drivers who day in and day out meet different customers and who are responsible for their safety.

Association Hon. President B.S. Prashanth made a plea to both the MLAs that under the government's housing scheme, the drivers without a roof over their head must be provided houses and also a separate office for the Association with affordable rent must be provided.

On the occasion drivers were presented with uniforms and the children with schoolbags. Both Ramdas and Nagendra were also felicitated.

Seagull Theatre and Ba-Srushti to present Kamaladevi Chattopadhyay this evening

Mysuru, July 1- Seagull Theatre and Ba-Srushti will be presenting the Kannada play "Kamaladevi Chattopadhyay (Kelavu Nenapugalu)" at Bhoomigeeta auditorium in Rangayana premises in city at 6.30 pm today (July 1).

The play, based on Kamaladevi Chattopadhyay's autobiography, is written by Vaidehi. Design and Direction is by Bhagirathi Bai.

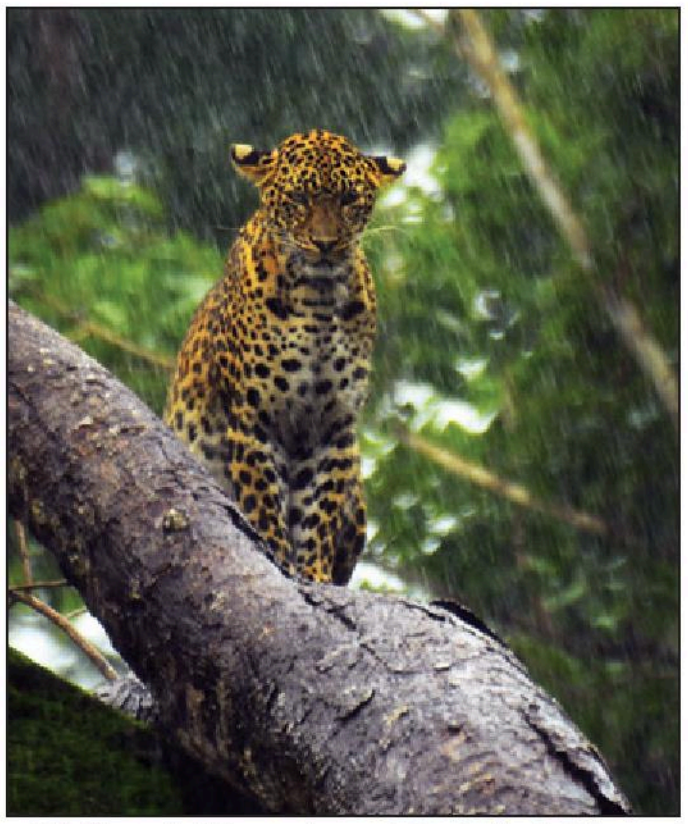
SYNOPSIS

The play begins with the childhood of Kamaladevi Chattopadhyay in her ancestral home at Mangaluru where her mother Girijabai and grandmother are seen to have a positive and strong influence on her, apart from her teacher Margaret cousins. The three women are much responsible for the strong personality of Kamaladevi that is reflected through her actions in every phase of her life.

Later, as a young widow, Kamaladevi was encouraged by her mother to pursue higher studies and also accept the proposal of marriage by Harindranath Chattopadhyay, the famous performing artiste and brother of Sarojini Naidu. The marriage happened in spite of much opposition from an orthodox society, and later she even chose to take the bold step of divorce from Harindranath when she realised that her dignity was being harmed.

Her role as a freedom fighter, her indomitable role in the Salt Satyagraha of Mahatma Gandhi where she opposed Gandhi's dilemma on letting women participate in Dandi March. Her role as the first woman to contest a seat in Madras Provincial Legislative Assembly, under the guidance of Margaret Cousins, and her role in reforming the Indian arts and handicrafts, the play is an amalgamation of all these facets of her life and personality, reflected through monologues of older Kamaladevi, and enactment of younger Kamaladevi and other important characters in her life and the freedom struggle.

Rain can't change Leopard's spots !



When rain falls on a leopard, it wets him but does not wash off his spots. This Ghanaian proverb is a more elaborate version of the well-known saying "a leopard can't change its spots." In the same way that no matter how long a leopard stands in the rain, its spots will never wash away, you can't change a person's true character regardless of how hard you try.

How Mysuru is helping India chase FIFA World Cup Dream

By V. Shourabh

With FIFA World Cup 2018 entering Knockout Stage, the intensity of competition has risen manifold. It has even captured the attention of Mysuru which is making gradual and steady strides towards footballing. The city has 40 Football Clubs under Mysore District Football Association (MDFA).

In this nation where cricket is celebrated as religion and festival, football struggles to make a mark. It was heartbreaking to see Indian Football Team Captain Sunil Chhetri, who uploaded a video on virtual platform, requesting Indian fans to support them by coming to the grounds on match days.

But thanks to the recent success of Indian Super League (ISL), football teams are catching support of fans. Chairperson of Reliance Foundation Nita Ambani has played a huge role in changing the face of football in India. She is also the Founder of ISL that has made many local players realise their untapped potential and have become resources for the National Team.

Meet city's first woman football coach Dr. Ramini, who represented the Rest of India Team

Coming back to Mysuru, there is Dr. Ramini of Physical Education Department, Maharani's Science College, who has dedicated her life to promote football. She is the first woman football coach from Mysuru. There is a stereotype that football is a men's game and Dr. Ramani has been trying hard to break that stereotype by training several football players.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, she said, "In my early days, I used to practice athletics with Ashwini Nachappa at Kanteerava Stadium in Bengaluru. I was keen on football which was being played at that stadium. I used to observe them. Seeing my interest, Sai Sampath, Football Coach of Railways, gave me an opportunity to practice and play. I was in 7th standard and within 6 months I got selected for Sub-Junior Nationals. Later I got selected for the Junior Nationals and Nationals. I got encouragement from my school Gandhi Vidyashala, Bengaluru, as they let me play my game, gave me attendance and also guided me to clear my exams."

She secured 3rd rank in her B.PEd. and 4th rank in her M.PEd. which she completed from Bangalore University. She did not let her academic career hinder her passion for football.

Dr. Ramini, PE Director, Maharani's Science College, seen training students on the techniques of football.

She trained vigorously and participated in several tournaments in Kerala and groomed herself into a polished player. She has represented the State Football team on several occasions and won laurels.

Dr. Ramini represented the Rest of India Team in 1987 when they played against Myanmar at the Nepal Border. She started coaching women football players from 2004 and conducts summer camps and coaching camps in Mysuru for both men and women. She is one of the Selection Committee members for the All India Inter University Football tournaments (Men), Selection Committee member for Bangalore University Football team (Men & Women), Observer for All India Football Inter-University (Men), Founder of Bangalore University Women's Football Team etc.

She has trained several girls who have represented Karnataka, Nationals and the Senior Nationals. Currently, she is also the Mysore University Team Coach and Mysore University Selection Member for Men.

In Mysuru, Dr. Ramini coaches more than 100 students. She also played a key role during the Mysore Inter-District Women's Football Tournament in 2012-13. Her motive has always been to provide and pass on her knowledge about the game. Though there is no tournament for women under the Karnataka State Football Federation (KSFA), she takes up the responsibility to conduct such tournaments with the help of MDFA members. She has also trained a Women's Infosys Football team that takes part in corporate competitions.

Speaking on India's chances to make it to the FIFA World Cup in the future, she says, "Advanced technology and training practices need to slowly flow in. Nutritional knowledge is highly lacking while stamina, strength and endurance of Indian players are very less. These parameters must be addressed professionally. Only then there is a chance of the dream coming true."

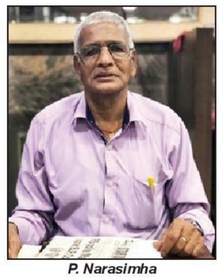
Footballing legend P. Narasimha, who played for India

Another footballing legend from Mysuru is P. Narasimha. He is renowned for his fearless and powerful heading abilities. His journey has been a bumpy ride as an injury to his knee curtailed his fairytale ride. He has represented Indian Football team and has participated in VI President's Cup Football Tournament which was held at Seoul in South Korea during 1976.

Being a right back player, he was swift on his toes and used to dodge incoming corners from opposition by lunging into the air and heading the ball to safety. With heading as his main weapon in his armour, Narasimha used to score a lot of goals during corner kicks and free kicks that were crossed into 'D' box. He has been an active Governing Board Member of Karnataka State Football Association (KSFA) since 1998.

He says, "Football was in our family. My brothers used to play for Government Press in those days. I, being an employee of Jawa factory, used to play for Ideal Jawa Football Team. I used to play during my school and college days. But I took it seriously after I started playing for the Jawa Team and realised my potential. Since then it has been a hard but fruitful ride. I have represented Junior Nationals in Calicut, Nationals in Punjab, Mysore District Team, Karnataka State Team, the Indian Team, etc."

He has represented Karnataka State Team in the 10th Junior



P. Narasimha

Football Championship held at Quilon (now Kollam in Kerala) in 1973 where they emerged runners-up, 31st National Football Championship for Santosh Trophy held at Jalandhar (Punjab) during 1974 where the team lost in the semi-finals, Pentangular Mini Football Tournament held in Bangalore during 1974 where they emerged runner-ups, Vittal Trophy Football Tournament held at Madras in 1975 and emerged winners, 32nd National Football Championship for Santosh Trophy held at Calicut (Kozhikode) in 1975 where they lost in the finals, Karnataka Chief Minister's XI which played in the Exhibition Football Match against Wacker Club Berlin of Germany in 1976 at Bangalore, etc.

On how he got selected for the Indian Team, he says, "I took part in the selection camp which was being conducted in Bangalore. About 50 people were selected for the training camp. There used to be a weekly elimination process and I managed to clear all the tests and drills and eventually became a part of the Indian Team. That was a proud moment for me as it defined my life of playing for the country."

"After I returned from South Korea, while playing for the Jawa team in Bangalore I had a terrible knee injury. This sidelined me for a year as I underwent surgery and rehabilitation. This one-year gap from Indian team was a concern and I lost the opportunity to continue playing for India. But I made slow strides and continued playing the game and represented the State Team and kept the passion alive," he says.

"I was around the 25-year mark during my knee injury but continued playing professional football for the next two decades until I turned 45. I couldn't continue my studies in the early days as I was offered job in Jawa factory and I readily took it up. The Government has given me a site for my contribution to football and now I help MDFA in conducting the leagues and continue to act as a Governing Board Member of KSFA."

He also adds, "India is right now running high on the recent success of the Indian Football team under the leadership of Sunil Chhetri. India has a long way to go in order to achieve the dream of playing in FIFA World Cup. Our first aim should be to be eligible to play the qualifiers for now."

Technical lecture on Biodiversity and Environment

Mysuru, July 1- The Institution of Engineers (India), Mysore Local Centre, recently conducted a technical lecture on Biodiversity and Environment at S.P. Bhat Hall on JLB Road.

Dr. T. Thippeswamy, Senior Scientist (retd.), Central Sericulture Research and Training Institute (CSRTI), Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, Mysuru, who was the guest speaker, explained Biodiversity as the variety of life on earth and the essential interdependence of all living things.

Stating that scientists have identified more than 2 million species, he said tens of millions remain unknown. As per the latest record, earth has 8.7 millions species of which 6.5 are terrestrial and 2.2 are marine.

The tremendous variety of life on earth is made possible by complex interactions among living things including microscopic species like algae and mites, he said adding the earth is losing species at an alarming rate.

Some scientists estimate that as many as three species per hour are going extinct and 20,000 extinctions occur each year. When species of plants and animals go extinct, many other species are affected, Dr. Thippeswamy opined.

He said climate change is the single biggest environmental and humanitarian crisis. The earth's atmosphere is overloaded with heat trapping carbon-di-oxide, which threatens large-scale disruptions in climate with disastrous consequences. Global warming is the term used to describe a gradual increase in the average temperature of the earth's atmosphere and its oceans, a change that is believed to be permanently changing the earth's climate. India aims to cut 33 percent carbon emission by 2030, he added.

He explained an 8-point climate action plan.

They are: 1. Sustainable living and conservation; 2. Climate friendly, cleaner path; 3. Reduce emission intensity of GFP by 33 percent by 2030 from 2005 level; 4. 40 percent of electricity from non-fossil sources riding high on solar energy by 2030 that would result in abatement of 325 million tons of CO_2; 5. Create 10 million ha forest area to sink 2.5 – 3 billion tons of carbon dioxide in 15 years; 6. Better adopt to climate change consequences; 7. Mobilise domestic and new and additional foreign funds; 8.Building capacities for technology diffusion.

IEI Mysore Local Centre Chairman M. Chinnaswamy and Karnataka Renewable Energy Development Limited, Project Officer and IEI Programme Convener D.K. Dinesh Kumar were present.

HC dismisses petitions

The Police had booked the accused under KOCA that is aimed at curbing the menace of organised crime as the existing penal laws and adjudicatory mechanism are not adequate to deal with crimes such as contract killing.

Questioning the KOCA imposition on them, the 15 accused had filed two Writ Petitions (1070/17) and (7450/16) in the High Court. While Madesha, Manju, Chandru and Shivakumar filed one petition, 11 accused filed the other petition. The case came up before Justice K.N. Phanindra last week and advocates Paramesh and Kiran Gowli argued for the accused. They told the Court that the imposition of KOCA was unjust and the Jayalakshmipuram Police had erred.

Sources told Star of Mysore that hearing the case, Justice Phanindra told the advocates to approach the District Special Trial Court that has been established in Mysuru to hear this issue. Justice Phanindra directed the advocates to question the imposition of KOCA at the Trial Court and disposed of the petitions. The HC also directed the Trial Court to adjudicate the case by March 2019.

The Devu murder case is at present in the argument stage at the Special Trial Court and the Jayalakshmipuram Police had submitted a 11,000-page chargesheet against 29 accused. 'China is a bigger enemy of India than Pakistan'

Mysuru, July 1 (YDS&DM)- Maintaining that China is a bigger enemy than Pakistan, as China is hurling our economy by dumping its goods, Swadeshi Jagran Manch National Organising Secretary Kashmiri Lal Ji has said that while China is exporting goods worth 64 Billion Dollars to our country, it has been importing very less from India.

He was speaking at a seminar on the topic "Current Economic Scenario and Swadeshi Solution" organised by Swadeshi Jagran Manch at Gopalaswamy PU College near Nanjumalige here yesterday.

Pointing out that India has more number of youths than China, Lal Ji opined that promotion of Swadeshi goods will generate more jobs in the country.

Stressing on the importance of buying Swadeshi goods, he said that such an action will help save our foreign exchange reserves.

Giving a breakup of India's job sector, he said that while only 3 percent of the population were in Government service, 45 percent were engaged in agriculture and an equal number in small jobs.

Complimenting the Indians for buying foreign companies such as Woodland and Karbonn mobiles, he said that consumers must look more at 'Made by Indian' goods rather than going for 'Made in India' brands.

Noting that the country can produce much better goods than China, Lal Ji called for promotion of entrepreneurship among Indian youths for making 'Make in India' campaign a huge success.

He later held an interaction with students on promoting Swadeshi goods.

Swadeshi Jagran Manch office-bearers N.R. Manjunath, G.R. Srivatsa and others were present during the programme.

Former Mayors R. Lingappa and M.J. Ravikumar told the Minister that a resolution was passed by the MCC Council long back to hand over the aquarium to the Zoo but the Zoo was not ready to part with 50 percent of the profits as demanded by the MCC.

Inspecting the aquarium premises, the Minister was disappointed to see empty beer bottles and plastic waste. He asked Additional Deputy Commissioner T. Yogesh and MCC Commissioner K.H. Jagadeesha to speed up the process of handing over the aquarium. Meanwhile, B.P. Ravi told the Minister that it would take Rs. 25 to 28 crore to finish the aquarium works and the Zoo will have to obtain loans to finish the works. Minister Mahesh asked Ravi to make an agreement with the MCC that 50 percent of the profits generated by the aquarium once completed will be shared with MCC after the loan amount is cleared. Both the MCC and Zoo authorities agreed to this proposal and told the Minister that the process will be completed within one or two days.

Ravi told Star of Mysore that the aquarium will be turned around to make it a new tourist attraction. "Glasses will be laid and exotic fish species will be purchased and beautiful lightings will be installed. "We will make the place demo-worthy within six months and complete the entire project within two years. Once completed, the aquarium will draw tourists in droves," he said.

Apart from refurbishing the aquarium, the area surrounding the aquarium will be landscaped to make it more attractive. The road between Karanji Lake and the Zoo will be beautified so that it will attract more tourists, he added.

While on his inspection of the aquarium, the Minister directed the Zoo authorities to take steps to reduce the prices of food offered at the Zoo canteen. Mahesh said that more than the rich, poor people visit the Zoo and the food prices were exorbitant.

Lions West Sevaniketan students share 'Joy of Giving'

Mysuru, July 1- Lions West Sevaniketan School, Gokulam, has started a new initiative for children — The Joy of Giving. It aims to encourage students and parents of the school to inculcate practice at home by sharing a small quantity of a commodity to the people in need.

Children and parents were briefed about this initiative and the school requested every student to contribute a single onion or potato along with a small quantity of rice (about 100 grams) which is available at their houses, on the second Saturday of June month.
